Your inbox wasn't built to recruit.

Shared inboxes, reply-all threads and flagged messages can't tell you who's waiting, who's gone quiet or who's next. Respond Capture can, and it sends the follow-up for you.

	Respond Capture	Follow-up
Written and sent one at a time	Nurture sequences send on schedule, stage by stage	Knowing who's waiting
Unread counts and flags	Needs Attention: waiting on you, quiet for 7+ days, or stalled	Conversation history
Scattered across personal and shared inboxes	Every email and text in one thread per candidate	Candidate stage
Kept in someone's head or a separate list	Every candidate sits in a pipeline stage your whole team can see	Messages you send often
Copy, paste and edit	Unlimited templates with merge fields	Documents
Attachments to dig back through	Uploads land on the candidate's record	When a recruiter moves on
Their inbox goes with them	Every conversation stays on the candidate's record	Texting
A separate phone with a separate history	Two-way texts in the same thread as email (Professional)

2.4x more recruits entered the academy in the first year on Respond Capture than in the year before.
