Keep your HR system. Add the follow-up it's missing.

Government HR and applicant systems are built to post jobs, collect applications and keep records. Respond Capture is built for what happens next: keeping every candidate engaged until they reach the academy.

	Respond Capture	Built for
– HR records, postings and compliance	✓ Keeping candidates engaged from application to academy	Between stages
– Updates sent by hand when there's time	✓ Sequences and stage triggers follow up automatically	Candidate experience
– Built around the application	✓ A portal with their stage, next step, messages and uploads	Recruiter's daily view
– Lists and reports	✓ Needs Attention flags who's waiting, gone quiet or stalled	Conversations
– Spread across staff inboxes and phones	✓ Every email and text in one thread per candidate	Public safety stages
– Configured around HR workflows	✓ Built around written tests, PATs, oral boards, background and the academy	Working together
– Applicants stay in your HR system	✓ Import applicants by CSV today. Direct integrations are in development

2.4x more recruits entered the academy in the first year on Respond Capture than in the year before.
