Your spreadsheet can't follow up. Respond Capture does.

A spreadsheet holds names. Respond Capture moves every applicant from application to academy, sends the right message at every stage and shows you who's waiting on you.

	Respond Capture
A row per person, updated by hand	A pipeline built from your stages. Drag candidates as they move	Tracking applicants
Only when someone remembers	Emails and nurture sequences start the moment a candidate changes stage	Follow-up
Applicants call to ask where they stand	A portal shows their stage, next step, messages and uploads	Candidate status
Sort, filter and scan	Needs Attention flags who's waiting on you, gone quiet or stalled	Who needs attention
Email attachments and shared drives	Uploaded to the candidate's record, tied to required tasks	Documents
One file, one owner, conflicting copies	Unlimited users, each with the right role	Your team
Retyped from emails and paper forms	Your career site and application form feed the pipeline	New applications
Not possible	Two-way texts in the same thread as email (Professional)	Texting candidates

2.4x more recruits entered the academy in the first year on Respond Capture than in the year before.
